

Remarks

This amendment should help in the preparation of an office action by making the application easier to examine. The amendments consisted of clarifying the language used in the claims and no new matter has been added to the application.